American Mahjong Scoring Cheat Sheet

Who pays what - settles every scoring argument in seconds

The Payment Rules

How the hand was won	Who pays	Amount
On a discard	The discarder	Double the printed value
On a discard	The other two players	Single value each
Self-pick (from the wall)	All three players	Double value each
Jokerless win (house rule)	Same payers	Double again

Hand Values

- The value is printed at the end of each card line - usually 25-75 points.
- Concealed and Singles & Pairs hands are the high scorers.
- Points are tracked as running balances; they should always sum to zero.

Common Doubling Situations

- Discard win: discarder pays 2x, others 1x.
- Self-pick win: everyone pays 2x.
- Jokerless hand (house rule): pays 2x again.
- Wall game: nobody pays anything.
